5. Lawful Processing

RESET undertakes to comply with the 8 conditions for the lawful processing of personal information:

5.1 Accountability

RESET takes responsibility and remains accountable for personal information in our possession and processed by us. RESET will ensure that the conditions for lawful processing are given effect to and complied with.

5.2 Processing Limitation

5.2.1 RESET undertakes to process personal information,

- lawfully;
- In a reasonable manner that does not infringe the privacy of the data subject; and
- in a manner that is adequate, relevant and not excessive.

5.2.2 Personal information will only be processed if,

- the data subject or a competent person, where the data subject is a child, consents thereto;
 - processing is necessary to carry out actions for the conclusion or performance of a contract to which the data subject is party;
 - processing complies with an obligation imposed by law;
 - processing protects a legitimate interest of the data subject;
 - processing is necessary for the proper performance of a public law duty by a public body;
- or

- processing is necessary for pursuing the legitimate interests of the responsible party or of a third party to whom the information is supplied.

5.2.3 Personal information will be collected directly from the data subject, unless:

- the information is contained in or derived from a public record or has deliberately been made public by the data subject;
- the data subject or a competent person, where the data subject is a child, has consented to the collection of the information from another source;
- collection of the information from another source would not prejudice a legitimate interest of the data subject;
- collection of the information from another source is necessary;
- to avoid prejudice to the maintenance of the law by any public body;
- to comply with an obligation imposed by law or to enforce legislation;
- for the conduct of proceedings, in any court or tribunal, that have commenced or are reasonably contemplated;
- in the interests of national security;
- to maintain the legitimate interests of the responsible party or of a third party to whom the information is supplied;
- compliance would prejudice a lawful purpose of the collection; or
- compliance is not reasonably practicable in the circumstances of the case.

5.3 Purpose Specification

5.3.1 RESET will collect personal information for the following and related purposes:

- Affordability check;
- Fraud check;
- Credit qualification and risk assessment;
- Delivering of Services;
- Complying with contracts;
- Confirmation of employment;
- Debt collection, including tracing in the event of default on payment;

- Vetting of employees; and
- Communication with clients and suppliers.

5.3.2 Once personal information, processed and stored by RESET, has reached its expiry date or becomes in any way redundant, RESET will destroy or delete the record of personal information in a manner that prevents its reconstruction in an intelligible form.

5.4 Further Processing Limitation

RESET undertakes to carry out any further processing of personal information in accordance or compatible with the purpose for which it was collected originally.

5.5 Information Quality

RESET will take reasonably practicable steps to ensure that the personal information is complete, accurate, not misleading and updated where necessary.

5.6 Openness

5.6.1 RESET will maintain the documentation of all processing operations under its responsibility.

5.6.2 If personal information is collected, RESET will take reasonably practicable steps to ensure that the data subject is aware of:

- the information being collected or the source from which it is collected;
- the name and address of the responsible party;
- the purpose for which the information is being collected;
- whether or not the supply of the information by that data subject is voluntary or mandatory;
- the consequences of failure to provide the information;
- any law authorising or requiring the collection of the information;
- the fact that, where applicable, the responsible party intends to transfer the information to a third country or international organisation and the level of protection afforded to the information by that third country or international organisation; and
- any further relevant information.

5.7 Security Safeguards

5.7.1 RESET undertakes to secure the integrity and confidentiality of personal information in its possession or under its control. This is done by taking appropriate, reasonable technical and organisational measures to prevent loss of, damage to, or unauthorised destruction of personal information, and unlawful access to or processing of personal information.

5.7.2 Where there are reasonable grounds to believe that the personal information of a data subject has been accessed or acquired by any unauthorised person, RESET will notify, as soon as reasonably possible after the discovery of the compromise,

- the Regulator; and
- the data subject unless the identity of such data subject cannot be established.

5.7.3 RESET has put in place the following adequate safeguards to secure the integrity and confidentiality of personal information:

- Physical access security to the building;
- Password protection on Loan Management systems;
- Password protection on all computer logins;
- Anti-virus on all computers; and
- Firewalls
