It may contain proprietary, business-confidential, and/or privileged material, including information relating to credit, financial, or personal information subject to the Protection of Personal Information Act (POPIA) and the National Credit Act (NCA). If you are not the intended recipient, you are notified that disclosing, copying, distributing, or acting in reliance on the contents of this email is strictly prohibited. OPINIONS AND EMPLOYEE CONDUCT

The views and opinions expressed in this email are those of the author and do not necessarily reflect the views of Reset Technology Group (Pty) Ltd or its subsidiaries. Employees are expressly prohibited from making defamatory statements or infringing (or authorising the infringement of) copyright or any other legal right by email. PRIVACY AND SECURITY

Please read our Privacy Policy on www.resetsolutions.co.za to understand how we collect, store, and process your personal information. Standard email is not a fully secure method of transmitting personal or sensitive information, and there are inherent risks in using it. While we take reasonable precautions to prevent viruses or malicious software, the sender cannot accept responsibility for loss or damage arising from the use of this email or its attachments, as emails can be lost, intercepted, or corrupted. Please check this email for threats using appropriate software; the sender accepts no liability for any damage caused by its content.

CYBER CRIME AND FRAUD ALERT

We do not send notifications of changes to our (or any third party's) banking details by email unless independently confirmed with you, face to face or telephonically. We ask that you apply the same caution. Fraudsters impersonate legitimate firms, and clients have been tricked into paying money into fraudulent accounts. If you receive an email appearing to be from us that provides different banking details or indicates a change in our banking details, please contact our offices by telephone immediately — do not reply to the email, click any links, or act on the information it contains. We will not accept responsibility for funds transferred to an incorrect account as a result of such fraud.

Where your own banking details change, please confirm this with our offices personally and not by email alone — we will not act on email instructions regarding banking details without independent verification, in the interests of your security.

Please consider the environment before printing this email.
